Address of Department Commander

Comrades: Another year has passed since we assembled in our annual gathering. Like our armies toward the close of the struggle in which we took part, those of us who have been spared are better prepared, by previous experience, to do better and more effective work in the upholding and advancement of the principles of fraternity, charity and loyalty. Many of our comrades have fallen but those who remain have worked resolutely and, I think, more enthusiastically to fulfill the object of our association and impress on the people in their respective communities that the Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic are not only the survivors of the war for the suppression of the rebellion, which preserved the union of the States—but that we are the leaders in all movements which tend to the betterment and advancement of our country; and that the surviving soldier is an object lesson to the young of our land and is a convincing object of that mighty struggle which demonstrated to the world that this country shall in truth and in fact be the “land of the free and the home of the brave.”

When I assumed command I did so with a full realization of its burdens and responsibilities, and had many misgivings as to my ability and strength to meet them; but the perplexing questions have been made easier to solve by the kind, generous and fraternal advice and assistance of my Assistant Adjutant General Samuel P. Town.

And while the work contemplated has not been fully realized in several directions, yet what I have done was with the purpose of aiding each comrade to realize more fully, if possible, than ever before, the honor that is his in having been a soldier, sailor or marine for the Union, and a feeling that membership in the Grand Army congress, not only honor on account of service in the Army or Navy, but that it carries with it duties and responsibilities for the present and the future. From my observation in all parts of this Department I am convinced that the comrades act more fully in harmony with this proposition than ever, and, as a result, the members of the Grand Army are held in the highest esteem and honor in their respective communities—honored as soldiers and respected as citizens. Let us rather, from this fact, take new heart and courage to battle manfully for the right. There are still battles for the “old boys” to fight; there are still wrongs for them to right. If the saying is true, “that we are as old as we feel,” then we should measure our ages from years downward and say we are so many years young. As the Veterans pass away, and become fewer in numbers, the lustre of their deeds will begin to shine, and when we are all gone our sun will just rise over the eastern horizon and, as years roll on, will become brighter and brighter. There is, therefore, nothing over which we should feel sad but everything to cause us to look to the future with hope, and confidence.

MEMBERSHIP.

By reference to the report of the Assistant Adjutant General you will see the gains and losses. The net loss has been very great during the past year. Comrades, we cannot increase numerically, but we can and do increase in power and influence for good.

FINANCE.

The report of the Assistant Quartermaster General, and that of the Council of administration, will show that the expenditures have been well guarded and that, financially, we are in a healthy condition.

VISITATIONS.

I have attended all the Re-unions, district, county and regimental, so far as time and conflicting dates permitted. I had hoped to make more visits to Posts of the Department but those visited and Camp Fires attended, covering in territory as they do one-half of the counties of the Commonwealth, it was a physical impossibility. Besides the number of Posts visited, there were present comrades from other Posts in their vicinity, representing quite a number of additional Posts. And to attend the National Encampment at Columbus, Ohio, with the delegates and past commanders, I have devoted much of my time in the interest of the Grand Army of the Republic. I trust and hope that my humble efforts will not have been entirely in vain.

SONS OF VETERANS.

This organization is doing much to perpetuate the service of their fathers and in most parts of the states are active and energetic, but in other parts the Sons do not seem to appreciate the honor that is theirs, of being sons of worthy sires, and fail to interest themselves and others eligible to membership in the organization. In some parts the Grand Army assists the sons, while in the majority of places where this body of young men exists, they are great aid to the Posts and are taking greater interest in the work of the Grand Army of the Republic. Every comrade should use his influence to have his son or sons, if he has any, to join this organization, thus doing the preliminary work which will develop entirely upon them when we are mustered out.

WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS.

The loyal women composing this organization take great pride in the Home for the mothers, widows, sisters or daughters of the veterans, which they have established at Hawkins, near Pittsburgh. I did not have the pleasure of visiting this Home as I had desired. I understand that the Home is managed by good hands. The purposes and objects of this Home appeal to all of the comrades, and the efforts of these generous women should be seconded by all veterans and charitable citizens. In fact, all the Homes of the Grand Army of the Republic throughout the state should have the commendation of all.

PENNSYLVANIA SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' HOME AT ERIE.

I was unable to visit this Home, nor could my staff do so, but from what I have learned it is everything that could be desired.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

The Soldiers Orphans' Industrial School at Scotland is a credit to the state. The studies are supplemented by training in the industrial arts; carpentry, cabinet and pattern making are taught practically by doing the work in the shop to those boys who have a desire or display an aptitude in that direction. Those who wish to become machinists go into the machine shop. Printing, tailoring, dressmaking and laundering are also taught by doing the actual work in each department of the school. Each pupil spends half of the time in school and the other half in the industrial department of the institution. Military training is required of the boys and calisthenics of the girls, and if those who pass through these schools do not become useful, patriotic and good citizens it will not be the fault of the schools. All honor is due to the heads of the various departments of the schools, and we hope that the institution may be continued in its present state of efficiency so long as there is a soldier's orphan who needs its aid and assistance. No appropriations made by the Legislature of the state are doing more good and are used to better advantage than those for the care and maintenance of the Homes for Indigent Soldiers, their widows, and the Soldiers' Orphan School.

FIFTY-FOURTH NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.

The Fifty-fourth National Encampment was held at Columbus, Ohio, and the Department of Pennsylvania was fully represented by its officers and representatives and Post Department Commanders. This Department sustained its previous good record for soldierly appearance and marching in the parade. The trip going and coming was delightful and our stay in Columbus was one of pleasure as well as an inspiration to all who were fortunate to be with us.

MEMORIAL DAY.

As the graves of the veterans become more numerous the interest on the part of the people in Memorial Day becomes greater. As each year removes us farther from the time when the services of these men and their heroic efforts wrought such wonderful results, so the people of the Great Republic comprehend more fully the significance of this day to the present and future generation. While recognizing in the strewing of spring's choicest flowers over the last resting place of the veterans, that it is symbolic of the most sacred memory of their heroic services for their country, it is also emblematic of the hope that the present and future citizen will be patriotic, vigilant and brave in the perpetuation of the principles of equal rights and national unity. The Grand Army of the Republic, the Sons and Daughters of Veterans, Women's Relief Corps, Ladies of the Grand Army, the Patriotic Sons of America, American Legion, and all kindred patriotic bodies have still the work of teaching the lessons and sacred memories of this day, so that the public will recognize it as a Memorial Day, too sacred to be profaned by all kinds of amusements. Never since the American Memorial Day has been established has it been more generally and sacredly observed throughout this Department than this year, and with the assistance of the late war veterans, who are taking a great interest. May God's richest blessings rest on our sons and our grandsons who took part in the World's War. They will have to take our places when the Grand Army of the Republic ceases to be.

PATRIOTISM IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

For years the members of the Grand Army of the Republic have recognized the importance of emphasizing in our public schools the instruction in patriotism. We have this year a live patriot instructor in Comrade Campbell Stanton of Post No. 162 of Pittsburgh, who is interested in developing and maintaining the spirit of patriotism, especially by visiting the schools preceding Memorial Day, and also by attending, as Posts, religious services on the Sunday prior to the sacred Memorial. The Camp Fires and Re-unions have also been strong factors in educating the public mind in the duties of citizenship. Our organization as such, as well as its members individually, has always stood ready and willing to lead in all movements that tend to educate the people in their duties as members of this great Republic.

DEPARTMENT OFFICERS AND STAFF.

In Senior Vice Department Commander Washington F. Hambright, and Junior Vice Department Commander A. B. Wanop, I have had able, conscientious and energetic assistance. Their work has been well and faithfully performed. All the predications made of them one year ago have been fulfilled in letter and spirit. It has been demonstrated by actual experience that a veteran can accomplish more than a recruit. Experience is of great value everywhere, but in no place is it of more value than in the position of Assistant Adjutant General. If my administration as Department Commander for the past year has had any merit it is due largely to my efficient, painstaking, obliging, kind and good-natured Assistant Adjutant General Samuel P. Town. He has accompanied me on nearly all of my visits to Posts and Re-unions, and has everywhere been, not only the Assistant Adjutant General of the Department, but to me a comrade and a companion, full of the milk of human kindness, and known, loved and respected in every Post in this Department. For his efficient and courteous manner of conducting the business of this Department for the past year I render to him my most sincere thanks. May the lines of his future life fall in pleasant places and his blessings be as numerous as his friends, is the sincere and ardent wish of the retiring Department Commander.

I would also return my sincere thanks to our efficient and courteous Department Clerk, B. L. Myers, for his kindness.

IN MEMORIAM.

Since our last Encampment a regiment of our Comrades from Pennsylvania has been mustered out by death. These Comrades proved their heroism and valor on land and on sea, showing their worth as Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic and as citizens of this Commonwealth. The places that have been made vacant cannot be filled. We will miss them in our Posts and Encampments; they will be missed in their homes and communities. The high and the low have answered to the same call.

THANKS.

For the faithful discharge of every duty by Department officers I extend to each one my thanks. The Aides-de-camp have aided me greatly in making my labors less arduous and more pleasant and merit my kindest regard for their able assistance in making my administration successful. To the Post Department Commanders and Comrades, who have helped me so much by their kindly advice and suggestions, I am placed under renewed obligations.

CONCLUSION.

Comrades, I appreciate the honor you conferred upon me one year ago. I have never looked more earnestly or with more enthusiasm in any cause than I have as Department Commander of Pennsylvania. It has been to me a pleasure as well as a duty to endeavor to hold the standard of this Department high and not permit, by act or word, that which would tend to lower it from the high position it has held under my able predecessors. If I have succeeded sufficiently in my purposes and aims to meet your approval and respect then I shall feel that my labors have not been entirely in vain. I shall step back into the ranks to continue my labors for this unique organization and the Comrades, and my most ardent wish and hope is that you and I may live many years to enjoy the pleasant and lasting friendships formed and cemented during the past year. May success attend you in your every effort and your remaining days be days of pleasantness and peace.

Report of Senior Vice Department Commander

Lancaster, Pa., April 8, 1920.

SAMUEL P. TOWN, Assistant Adjutant General.

Dear Comrade: As it is customary, and I believe proper for the Senior Vice Department Commander to present a report to the Department Encampment, I therefore submit the following:

At the 53d Annual Encampment Dept. of Penna., held at Lancaster, Pa., June, 1919, I was unanimously elected Senior Vice Department Commander, an honor I gratefully appreciate.

I have represented the Department of Pennsylvania at a number of local functions, such as receiving and welcoming home the returned soldiers from overseas, and at the Demobilization of Service Flags, and when called upon emphasized the fact that the sacrifices and loyalty of the Boys of 1861 to 1865 and the Grand Army of the Republic keeping the fires of patriotism burning since then, made it possible for the United States to engage in the World War and return victorious.

I have kept in close touch with our Department Commander and learned that he was ardently and faithfully performing all the duties required of him, and I am thankful that it was not necessary for me to represent him.

In company with the Department Commander, Assistant Adjutant General and other comrades, we attended the commencement exercises of the Soldiers' Orphan Industrial School at Scotland, Franklin County, Pa. We were accorded a hearty welcome and very delightfully entertained. This institution is a great credit to the State of Pennsylvania, and also to the Grand Army of the Republic and to which comrades are always welcome.

It would have been a great pleasure for me to have accompanied the Department Commander on his visitations, but was denied that privilege on account of sickness in my family: I do not offer this as an excuse but as an apology.

With my best wishes for the future of the Department and each comrade, I remain.

Yours very truly in F. C. & L.,

W. F. HAMBRIGHT,
Senior Vice Department Commander.

Report of Junior Vice Department Commander

Philadelphia, April 1, 1920.

COMRADE SAMUEL P. TOWN, Assistant Adjutant General,
 Department of Pennsylvania,
 Grand Army of the Republic.

Comrade: I have the honor to submit herewith my report as Junior Vice Department Commander.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the Comrades of the Department for the honor conferred on me at Lancaster, June, 1919. I have to the best of my ability endeavored to advance the interest of the Grand Army of the Republic during my term of office. I have had the pleasure of accompanying the Department Commander Geo. W. Roads, and Assistant General Samuel P. Town on several occasions; Grand Army Day at Willow Grove, the Semi-Annual Re-union of the Bucks County Posts at Newtown, Post 31 of West Chester, Post 217 of Easton, Post 2 and Post 160 of Philadelphia. I also visited on inspections and installations Posts 12, 21, 46, 51, 63, 94, 114 and Post 79 of Conshohocken. I have visited the Ladies' Auxiliary of Post 2 and of Darby, Delaware County. I have visited the Home for Veterans and Wives at 65th and Vine Streets, Philadelphia. I had the pleasure of attending the reunion by request of the 138 P. V., at Post 94 Hall in September, 1919. I have attended all the meetings of the Council of Administration except one.

In conclusion I wish to thank the Department Commander and the members of the staff for their cordial greetings and kind consideration on all occasions. I am

Yours in F. C. and L.,

ALFRED B. WANNOP,
 Junior Vice Dept. Commander, Dept. of Penna., G. A. R.

Report of the Assistant Adjutant General

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic,
Philadelphia, May, 1920.

GEORGE W. RHOADS, Department Commander.

Comrade: I have the honor to submit to you my report for the year ending December 31, 1919.

	Members.	Posts.
Members in good standing December 31, 1918,	10,980	471
Gain:
By muster,	106

Total loss,	1,415	423
Membership December 31, 1919,	9,928	431

From the above statement it will be observed that the Department, as regards both Posts and membership decreasing in about the ratio as for several years past. Twenty-three Posts have been disbanded with a membership of 267 comrades during the year.

There are now on the rolls thirty-one Posts with but five members and less each, which will naturally soon have to disband. One hundred and one Posts with between five and ten members each and 144 Posts with between ten and twenty members each, making 276 Posts with a membership of twenty comrades or less each—more than one-half the number of Posts in the Department.

Of the twenty-three Posts disbanded, nine surrendered their charters. Fourteen not having made any reports to Headquarters for several years and all efforts to communicate with any of the members being unsuccessful, they have been dropped from the rolls of the Department.

Of the 431 Posts now on the rolls about twenty-five have failed to report for 1919 but there is little doubt that many of them will yet do so.

Should the amendment to the Rules and Regulations, introduced at the last National Encampment and laid over until this year, establishing "a Headquarters Post" be adopted, it may be the means of keeping many comrades in our ranks who otherwise would lose their membership.

Turning to the brighter side, the greater number of Posts, notwithstanding the advanced age of membership, continue to exhibit a genuine spirit of fraternity, as has been demonstrated by the receptions accorded to you everywhere during your official visitations. The week passed in Pittsburgh, visiting the several Posts of that city and attending the Lincoln Birthday celebration in Memorial Hall will long be pleasantly remembered, as well as our visits to Easton, West Chester, Lancaster, Hazleton, Wilkes-Barre, Scranton and Philadelphia.

Memorial Day services were generally observed throughout the Department, the Posts being assisted by the Sons of Veterans and our auxiliaries.

The Woman's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic are still engaged in the good work of caring for the welfare and comfort of the veteran and the soldiers' widows in the several Homes established through their efforts. Too much praise can not be accorded these noble women.

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Erie, Pa., affords every comfort to many of our comrades. It is under the management of a commission of Grand Army comrades.

Orphans of our deceased comrades are being educated and maintained at the Soldiers' Orphans Industrial School, Scotland, Pa., which is under the management of a committee of the Grand Army.

Visits to these institutions prove that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has not neglected to care for the veteran of the Civil War and his orphan.

The death of Comrades James M. Reed, Chief of Staff is a loss deeply felt by his comrades. He was widely known throughout the Department. He was a representative to both National and Department Encampments for many years.

The National Encampment held at Columbus, Ohio, in September last, was largely attended and words fail to express the hospitality of the citizens towards the Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Appended herewith is "Exhibit A," giving the gains and losses of Posts from December 31, 1918 to December 31, 1919; also "Exhibit B," showing the number of Posts and the membership at the close of each year from 1867 to 1919.

Your consideration and the many courtesies to me, Commander, during my term of service, will remain pleasant recollections during coming years.

My thanks are extended to the members of your staff, more especially to those connected with Headquarters, Comrade J. Henry Holcomb, Chairman and the members of the Council of Administration and to Comrade Benj. L. Myers, Headquarters Clerk.

Yours in F. C. and L.

SAMUEL P. TOWN,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Report of Medical Director

Erie, Pa., April 8, 1920.

SAMUEL P. TOWN, Assistant Adjutant General.

Comrade: I have the honor of submitting my report for the past year as Department Medical Director.

The duties of my office have not been arduous, but so far as possible have been performed with pleasure.

The usual attention to my comrades, and assistance at memorial services and burial of our comrades.

A visit with the Department officers was made to the National Encampment at Columbus, Ohio.

We find some of our comrades pressed for necessities of life, owing to the high cost of living and family afflictions. The widows of our dead comrades also find the small pension provided by our government scarcely sufficient.

Our Ladies' organizations and associate members have done a wonderful work in assisting.

We cannot but remark the care of the "World War Soldiers" by the government. Never before has a government shown such attention, nor our citizens such liberality as exhibited during that terrible strife.

I remain yours in F. C. and L.,

JAMES E. SILLIMAN, M. D.

Report of Department Chaplain

Huntingdon, Pa., April 12, 1920.

SAMUEL P. TOWN, Assistant Adjutant General.

Comrade: The duty and privilege of preparing another annual report is again afforded. "By the good hand of our God upon us" many have been spared to enjoy the comradeship of the Fifty-fourth Annual Encampment of our well beloved Department. Many others would rejoice in this privilege, who are prevented by sickness and infirmities of age from gathering with their Comrades. They can rest assured that they are not forgotten by those more fortunate.

The duties of the year have been easily borne since the calls have been neither many nor onerous.

The annual report of the Department Chaplain was duly forwarded to the Chaplain-in-Chief.

It was my privilege to represent the Department Commander at the funeral of Comrade James M. Reed, Chief of Staff, who died at his home in Greensburg, January 8th. Many richly deserved tributes were paid to the memory of our honored and faithful Comrade.

Another privilege afforded was that of being present upon the occasion of the presentation of a testimonial to Past Department Commander J. D. Hicks in Altoona, which called forth numerous tributes to his many admirable qualities of mind and heart.

Beyond the opportunities of service that come to us so frequently in these later days in our several home communities as our Comrades are laid to rest on "fames' eternal camping ground" no burdens were laid upon the Chaplain.

"The fell destroyer" has not failed to visit many homes and has reaped a rich harvest in calling from our ranks during the year 1919, 922 Comrades. We are confident that with manly courage, as in days of yore, they fearlessly responded to the summons and passed over into the rest that remaineth. May the comfort and sustaining grace of the Captain of our Salvation, who has destroyed "him that hath the power of death" abide with those who remain to mourn.

We trust that our hearts are grateful today that we have so graciously been spared to share, not so much in the honors that are the rewards of faithful service as to rejoice in the benefits, which that service has brought to all following generations. Our victory has been the means, under God's guidance, of bringing wide spread blessings to the Nations. War, in itself, does not definitely settle questions of human progress though it is, apparently the method of opening the way to such final settlements as result from the reconstruction of society that necessarily follows all war. In the hands of the beneficent Ruler of Nations its consequences are ever directed to the accomplishment of ends not sought after nor anticipated by those, who seek the arbitrament of the sword. Thus we may confidently anticipate that out of the blind groping of a world's unrest may come that, toward which all these things are tending, a world made safe for democracy.

So, as we gratefully gather here and see what our eyes behold of the onward march of the principles for which we fought, we may "thank God and take courage" that our labors have had ample reward in the consciousness of duty well performed and that "these our dead, have not died in vain."

Yours in F. C. and L.,

S. F. FORGEUS,

Department Chaplain.

Report of Department Inspector

Philadelphia, January 15, 1920.

SAMUEL P. TOWN, Assistant Adjutant General.

Dear Comrade: The following instructions as to inspections were published in General Orders No. 4, date September 29, 1919:

I. Post Commanders will arrange for an inspection of the Post—should the Post so desire—between October 1st and December 15. Where the inspection is made, the occasion should be one of fraternal and social enjoyment.

II. Posts desiring to be inspected by a Comrade from an adjacent Post should notify the Department Inspector, Adam Calhoun, at these Headquarters, giving the date of inspection, the name and address, with number of Post, of the Comrade desired to inspect the Post, when the proper detail will be made by the Department Commander.

III. In cases where no special detail is desired, the Post Commander may detail a Past Officer or other comrade of the Post to make the inspection.

IV. Inspection blanks will be forwarded on request, from these Headquarters.

In accordance therewith a number of Posts requested that Assistant Inspectors be assigned to inspect their Posts.

To all such requests details of Assistant Inspectors were made and in other cases inspection blanks were forwarded upon request, the Posts being inspected by Post officers.

The tabulated report which follows shows the Posts inspected to be in good condition.

To Department Commander George W. Rhoads and to yourself I extend my thanks for many courtesies extended.

Yours in F. C. and L.,

ADAM CALHOUN,
Department Inspector.

Report of the Judge Advocate

Lancaster, Pa., April 6, 1920.

SAMUEL P. TOWN, Assistant Adjutant General,

Department of Penna. G. A. R.

Dear Sir and Comrade: Of the questions coming before the Judge Advocate during the year, only two may be considered of sufficient importance to report to the Department.

First, The Quartermaster of one Post states that his Post has a considerable sum of money invested in Government Bonds, placed by him in a vault box in bank to which he carries the key.

The Quartermaster has given bond for the safe keeping of the Post funds.

The Post by vote instructed the Quartermaster to hand over the vault box key to a trustee, who had not given bond, the trustee to give a receipt to relieve the Quartermaster from responsibility.

Question: Did the Post violate the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, as adopted by the National Encampment.

Opinion February 27, 1920.

The Rules and regulations provide, That the Quartermaster shall hold the funds, securities and vouchers and other property of the Post. (Chapter 2, Article 8, Sec. 4.)

Trustees.

"The Trustees shall have the care, custody and management of such property of the Post as the Post by vote shall place in their possession, or under their control." (Chapter 2, Article 8, Sec. 9.)

Quartermaster.

"The Quartermaster of the Post shall turn over to the trustees such property and funds of the Post as the Post by vote may direct." (Chapter 2, Article 8, Sec. 13.)

"Every Quartermaster shall give bond." (Chapter 5, Article 7, Sec. 1, page 34, Blue Book.)

Trustees.

"The Trustees of the Post may be required to give bond." (Chapter 5, Article 7, Sec. 1, Blue Book, page 232.)

Section 13, Article 8, Chapter 2, requiring the Quartermaster to turn over to the Trustees, such property and funds of the post as the post by vote may direct, is as much a part of the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army as that requiring the Quartermaster to give bond and receive the funds of the Post.

The Judge Advocate is therefore of the opinion that the Post has not in this action violated the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic.

County Contribution Toward Funeral Expenses.

A question has come to the Judge Advocate from a Son of a Veteran which we consider for the good of the order to notice.

The father of this Son of a Veteran although he had an excellent war record, died without means of burial.

The family expected to receive $75.00 from the County towards the funeral expenses, and probably were more liberal in the funeral outfit than they otherwise would have been.

The undertaker's bill was made out and sworn to, for $295, presented to the County Commissioners, with the request for payment of the $75 allowed by law.

The payment of this $75 was refused under the provision, or proviso of the Act of Assembly of June 20, 1919, P. L. 520, which is as follows. "Provided however, that the County Commissioners shall not contribute any moneys towards the funeral expenses of any such soldier, sailor or marine where the total expenses of any such funeral including said allowance of seventy-five dollars shall exceed two hundred and fifty dollars."

The suggestion of the Judge Advocate is that if this provision of our State Law could be noticed in the Orders or publications of the Grand Army of the Republic and Sons of Veterans it would likely avoid such disappointments in the future.

Respectfully submitted in F. C. and L.,

HUGH R. FULTON,
Judge Advocate.

Report of Chief Mustering Officer

Uniontown, Pa., April 5, 1920.

SAMUEL P. TOWN, Assistant Adjutant General,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Comrade: I have the honor to make the following report: Have responded to all calls made upon me during the year by patriotic organizations, schools and churches, attended Posts and G. A. R. meetings. Find the Comrades are becoming more feeble and less able to attend Post meetings, but still enthusiastic and loyal to the order.

Faternally submitted in F. C. and L.,

W. T. KENNEDY,
Chief Mustering Officer.

Report of Department Patriotic Instructor

Bellevue, Pa., April 5, 1920.

SAMUEL P. TOWN, Asst. Adjutant General,
Department Penna. G. A. R.

Dear Comrade: I beg to submit my annual report for 1920.

When I was appointed in February 1919, to succeed our deceased Patriotic Instructor, Comrade C. O. Smith, and received the Post reports, I was profoundly impressed with the unsatisfactory way the work was being done on the part of our Post Patriotic Instructors. Reports too numerous to mention were as follows: "We are too feeble of limb; our eyes too dim; our ears too deaf; we cannot climb stairs; too few in numbers and too far apart. They tell us it is done, we quit."

I was so deeply impressed that a more universal, methodical and practical way should be adopted in order to retain what has been done and accomplish what has not been begun. I thought the only way was to make it a part of our school curriculum and have it taught in our public schools, same as reading, writing and arithmetic. Suiting the action to the thought, I submitted it to Past Commander-in-Chief W. J. Patterson, Past Department Commander W. T. Powell and other comrades, who unanimously acquiesced their hearty approval as a master stroke reaching down through the annals of time if I could get it accomplished.

It required an act of legislature to make it a part of the school curriculum. There were yet two months before the legislature adjourned, not to meet again for two years. Through Hon. John Lauler of Post 3, who was a member of the legislature, on April 28th the following addendum to the school law as part of the school curriculum was entered in the lower House:

"The State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall prescribe a course of instruction conducive to the spirit of loyalty and devotion to the State and National Governments, which shall be taught in all the public schools of the State."

In two weeks it passed the House, and through the Senate on the 10th of June, signed by Governor Wm. C. Sproul on June 20th, it became a law or Act No. 263, six days before the adjournment of the legislature—thus accomplishing in less than two months more practical work than the Department of Pennsylvania had accomplished in fifty-four or fifty-five years of its existence, making it a part of the school curriculum.

The foundation was now laid on which to build up methodical teaching of patriotism through our public schools and to go down throughout time.

As the law required the Superintendent of Public Instruction to prescribe a course of teaching patriotism, I wrote the Superintendent Dr. Thos. E. Finegan, the following letter, which explains itself:

August 1, 1919.

"Dr. Thos. E. Finegan,
Supt. Dept. Public Instruction,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: As Patriotic Instructor Dept. of Penna. Grand Army of the Republic, I address you this letter.

On June 20th, this year, Governor Sproul signed School Bill Act No. 263, addendum to the school act as follows:

'The State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall prescribe a course of instruction conducive to the spirit of loyalty and devotion to the State and National Governments, which shall be taught in all the public schools of the State.'

The reason for the necessity of making the teaching of patriotism a part of our school curriculum was on account of the infirmities of advanced years of our comrades, incapacitating them from performing the duty that was so dear to their hearts; the second reason, on account of the depleted ranks and growing fewer as the years go by; the third reason, in our rural or country districts, not observed or taught at all.

Had this been done at the close of the Civil War, 54 years ago, there would not have been any occasion for draft. Being full of patriotism, they would have answered their country's call: 'Here I am, take me.' It would have nipped in the bud Bolshevism, Anarchism, I. W. W. and all the isms that disturb our country's prosperity, happiness and peace.

I have attached a few suggestions which the G. A. R. would be pleased to have in your prescribed course. I have submitted it to Dr. Davidson, Supt. of our Pittsburgh Schools, Prof. Hamilton, Supt. of our Allegheny County Schools, also to our Allegheny County Grand Army Association, consisting of 21 Posts, composed of Jews, Catholics and Protestants. All have unanimously approved these suggestions, but you are the Supt. of Public Instruction and by the act are to prescribe the course.

When your prescribed course has been formulated I would be pleased to have several copies that I may solicit the adoption of same voluntarily by the parochial schools of the state as part of their school curriculum. Whenever I have visited the parochial schools I have always found them go over the top on Patriotism. In this respect we are all a unit in patriotism.

After established in the public and parochial schools, will endeavor to have the private schools, academies, seminaries, colleges and universities embody it in their curriculum, that the rock-ribbed keystone state will be so thoroughly imbued with patriotism and as immovable as the rock of Gibraltar or the Adamantine Walls, that the sister states of the union will take notice and follow our example. When we have answered the last roll call and martialled off life's state of action, our labor on patriotism will systematically go on down through the annals of time.

Please bear in mind that these are only suggestions the Grand Army would be pleased to see embodied in your patriotic course of instruction in some way or other.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) CAMPBELL STANTON,

Patriotic Instructor, Dept. Penna. G. A. R."

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE COURSE OF PATRIOTISM BY THE G. A. R., TO BE TAUGHT IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

As per Act No. 263, Session 1919.

1. History of our Flag and principles for which it stands.

Reverence for the Flag.

Raising and saluting the flag at the opening of school sessions, and lowering it at the close.

Replacing with new flag when soiled, faded or torn.

Our allegiance to the flag, state and nation.

2. Lincoln's Gettysburg Address in all the schools.

Raising of Flag on the following days, and why; brief history of them:

Birthdays of Washington, Lincoln, Grant, Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt. Also on Appomattox Day (April 9th), Patriot's Day (April 19th), Memorial Day (May 30th), Flag Day (June 14th), Fourth of July and Constitutional Day (Sept. 17th).

MEMORIAL DAY.

The pupils' personal duty at cemeteries on Memorial Day, not a day of hilarity and sport, but a suitable observance of the day as one on which we take increased devotion to the cause for which they fought.

Owing to the advanced age and infirmities of the comrades, they are not now physically able to perform their former works at the cemeteries. Owing to many schools closing the last of March or before Memorial Day, said schools should be deeply impressed with their duties on Memorial Day, in looking after these rural cemeteries.

Owing to the severe illness of the Supt. of Public Instruction, Dr. Thos. E. Finegan, and other multiplicity of work, we were unable to get it into the school during the school year of 1919, but am assured that it will be ready for the beginning of the school year September 1920, and will when completed be superb.

When it is completed and entered in the schools, I will try to get the National Tribune to print it in its entirety, that other Departments who have not anything like it will be pleased to adopt it, or similar course throughout the Department of the Union.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Yours in F. C. and L.,

CAMPBELL STANTON. -

Patriotic Instructor.
